*In France, food and

You will want to ensure that your guests experience the gastronomy of the Anjou-Touraine region at its best. Our Chef creates the most wonderful French cuisine to the highest possible standards using natural local ingredients. Each course is served as if you were in an exclusive restaurant, not at a function. We have absolutely no doubt that we offer the best catered receptions in the Loire Valley.

The château carefully selects the finest and most suitable wines of the region within your budget to accompany your meals. Tastings of both food and wine take place during one of your planning visits to the château. We also offer fresh seafood buffets, hog roasts and daily breakfasts of fresh local patisseries and dairy produce.
