About me Sue Horne

People fall in love throughout the world, and yet to everyone who falls in love it is the most unique and precious thing in the world!

That is exactly why I love wedding ceremonies and the role I play as an Authorised Celebrant, preparing my couples for their wedding ceremony, and delivering their ceremony on their wedding day.

I have been marrying couples for over 29 years, and still I enjoy helping every couple with their wedding vows. I love spending time with my couples, and hearing their individual stories.

In my 29 years as an Authorised Civil Celebrant I am honoured to have well over 1,000 couples place their trust in me to design and deliver their ceremony - in all locations and settings - even in China.

What I offer for my couples

I guarantee a friendly, knowledgeable and professional service and will facilitate a calm, enjoyable and heart-felt ceremony designed for you!

The initial meeting and planning

The $660* (inc. GST) flat fee includes unlimited contact to ensure that we are creating a ceremony designed especially for you. We can meet in person or you can contact me via my mobile number or email address. I like to sit down with my couples to discuss and reflect on the outcomes, themes and expression they want for their wedding day! I love that I can help to take them through the transition from two single people to a married couple - it really is an honour to help them seal their love by marriage.

Ceremonies can be held in just about any location. Over the past 29 years I have married couples in community churches; forests; beaches; parks; private gardens; farms; restaurants; private homes; dedicated commercial wedding gardens; golf courses; cricket grounds; and on boats. Themed weddings are also quite popular and I will work with you to achieve your theme, including dressing to the theme if required.

Should you decide that you would like me to officiate at your wedding, you will:

- Be guided through all the legal requirements and processes relevant to the Marriage Act.
- Receive a personally designed ceremony, created together, with an understanding of your ceremony requirements and needs.
  - Receive access to unlimited consultation by telephone, email or in person.
    - Have an opportunity to have an on-site rehearsal, at no extra cost.
  - Receive a booklet hardcopy or electronic, of your wedding ceremony to keep forever.
  - Have access to resource material, such as books and DVDs relevant to your ceremony.
    - Receive knowledge, advice and a personal, friendly professional service.
- Be guided through your ceremony so that you will feel comfortable and enjoy the special moments that the two of you have planned for - taking your wedding vows together, and sealing your love by ceremony.

- Be assured that I will not breeze in and out of your place of ceremony, as I will allow enough time to avoid any immediate rush.
  - Have a celebrant that conforms to the Civil Celebrant's Code of Conduct.
- Have a celebrant that arrives at least 20 minutes before the commencement time of the ceremony.
  - Have your guests hear the ceremony, as I have my own PA system.
  - Be able to feel relaxed about the ceremony, as every detail will be attended to.
- Not have to apply for your full official wedding certificate - as I will apply on your behalf. The cost of this is included in your fees. That means you won't have to fill in another government application form which also requires you to show 100 points of identification.
  - Be assured that your wedding documents will be submitted to the Registrar General for registration, on the next business day after your wedding day.
  - A commemorative certificate and your official wedding certificate will be applied for
  - Be provided with a table and chairs with table cloth for signing the marriage register

I look forward to speaking to you soon
Sue Horne x
