Hi, I'm Anita

I'm so glad you're here - congratulations on your upcoming wedding!

I'm a warm, passionate people-person who loves the fun and romance of weddings. With an extensive career in tourism, hospitality, and event management, I've got the skill set to help create your perfect wedding ceremony.

Public speaking and engaging storytelling are crucial when conveying your love story to your friends and family on your big day - but don't worry, I've got this!

I'm a confident, experienced presenter who ensures you and your guests will feel all the sweetest emotions and enjoy every minute of your ceremony.

My favourite part of the wedding world is getting to know my clients. I love being highly organised and making the extra effort to ensure my couples feel comfortable, relaxed and excited throughout the process.

So, whatever your dream is for your wedding day, let me shape your love, vision and journey into an unforgettable ceremony!

The Process

Planning your wedding ceremony should be fun, above all else.

I support you every step of the way to make sure you have the best possible experience, while we create a ceremony to perfectly reflect you and your relationship.

Book me in

Let's chat in person or online, and form a connection. I can't wait to hear about your wedding plans.

Once you're comfortable I'm the best fit for you, let me know, and I'll lock in your date!

The excitement builds...

We'll complete the first legal doc together (exciting!). Using my ceremony guide, we plan the details.

In the week before, we meet for a rehearsal, and I make the final touches on your perfectly you ceremony script.

Your dream day

You: spend your day having the time of your life, not worrying about a thing!
Me: arrive well ahead of time, set up the space and welcome your guests. Then, I deliver your ceremony in an engaging, professional manner that feels relaxed and exciting for you and your guests. You make your promises, we sign the legal paperwork, and that's it! You're married. You and your guests leave the ceremony feeling blissed out and ready to celebrate!

Don't let me do all the talking!
See what my couples are saying about me, here.

Thank you!

I can't wait to meet you
