SO WHY DO WE NEED AN ON THE DAY COORDINATOR IF WE HAVE A VENUE COORDINATOR?

This is a question I hear quite a bit, so I thought I would answer this here. A Venue Coordinator is the main contact for the Venue. They will communicate with you for venue hire, food and beverage choices and confirmation. They will ensure adequate staff are available on your Wedding day. They will ensure the Venue's furniture that is provided in their package is set up and packed away as required and will discuss a timeline with you for when you are in the Venue. Outside of that... it is up to the couple to handle all other communication. Therefore you are the person that communicates with all vendors regarding access, bump in and out, you will need to circulate floor plans and advise them of any Venue information. You would be responsible for dressing your tables with your Décor and laying out all of your personal items (i.e. Guest Book, Wishing Well, Favours, Signage, Stationary and any other personal items for your day. Also... should there be an issue with a Vendor or Supplier, they will call you. This is where an On the Day Coordinator steps in... we are THAT person that handles everything between everyone on your behalf.

'The Long Nuptials' and 'The Short Nuptials' Ceremony

What is the Difference between 'The Long' and 'The Short' Nuptials Ceremony so that I can decide what is best for our Wedding Ceremony?

As you will see from our services, we offer two Ceremony packages and we want to explain what the difference is so you can decide what service will suit you best. We believe that there is no 'one fits all' when it comes to your Wedding Ceremony, the information shared, the delivery, and the elements that form your personalised Ceremony where you declare those all important 'I Do's'.

The difference between the two all comes down to the detail of the Ceremony and the inclusions that you choose to have in your Service. Both packages are created with the same moments such as a processional, an opening, your story, maybe a reading, personal vows, your I Do's, rings, and that all important moment of being announced as Mr's, Mrs', Mr & Mrs or Newlyweds (and especially the Legal items).

The difference is in the amount of detail you provide to me, how much you want to share, and any additional and personal items you would like included. You may have a big history full of details and stories that you want to share and have spoken about. You may want to include a symbolic ritual (handfasting, wine pouring, sand pouring, candle lighting), or, you may have a personal cultural element that you want to introduce into your Ceremony. In this circumstance the longer service would capture all of those moments with additional time to write your perfect script.

The shorter ceremony, as mentioned, still captures all of those all important moments and you still get your story shared in the way you want it to be shared, but you possibly aren't looking for any extra inclusions and want to keep the time of the service under the thirty minute mark.

Both packages are offered with my guaranteed attention to your story, your personalities, and both of your wants, yes' or no's as I listen carefully and take on board everything you are looking for. Both packages receive the same information and guidance from me, you receive the same documents for completion and have my total attention as your Wedding is the only Wedding on that day... it really (in a nutshell) comes down to how much you want shared with the family and friends Infront of you.

As we always say... It is your day and your way! We want to make it special, memorable, personal and delivered in a way that makes you look forward to this special moment.

An Extra Little 'TLC' For Your Wedding Ceremony Service

With my 'The Long Nuptials' and 'The Short Nuptials' ceremony bookings I offer my couples the opportunity to add on an extra help and support from me called 'An Extra Little TLC'. What this entails is me being present on the day of the Wedding earlier than what I would be if booked for Celebrancy only. I will meet your Vendors and ensure that your Ceremony (and possibly Reception) is set up as you would like it to be.

I would be a point of contact for your Vendors the week of, days before, and morning of the Wedding (instead of you!) to ensure that items such as...Arbor, Chairs, Tables, Florals, and any other items hired into your Venue are set up and into position as they should be.

Most Venues will have a coordinator but when it comes down to the positioning and physically placing of any external hired in items, all venues will vary on where the responsibility lies, they may include this, but some may not. With your vendors, again its good to understand this as some will already include this and have this discussion with you, some will charge you extra as a set up fee, some may arrive to the Venue to drop off the items only. Therefore it requires someone to be present to oversee and physically put the items into place... and most importantly into the layout you would like it to be.

With my 'TLC' add on I will liaise with you and be sure that I understand your requirements and prepare a floor plan as per our discussion. I will circulate this to the Vendors, and be there on the day to assist, oversee and physically place into position as required.

If this is something you would be interested, I love to help and take this stress off of you.
