

Katie Clayton

Hi, my name is Katie and I am your Happily Ever After Celebrant.

I have the honour of carrying the title registered marriage celebrant, and have the privilege of being based in Melbourne, with an abundance of elegant to edgy venues this is a great state to host the major celebrations within a persons life.

My goal is to get to know all my clients and be able to create a personalised and unique ceremony that reflects my client for who they are individually, as a couple and as individuals of family and community.

I am a young Celebrant who is: passionate, organised, loving, caring, passionate, modern, respectful and professional. I feel truly fortunate to be privileged to be able to provide this services and look forward to creating some memories on your special day.
