Next Steps

Step One

Upon receiving your inquiry, we will confirm our availability for your selected date and arrange an introductory video call. This call marks the beginning of bringing your vision to life. During this session, we will delve into the specifics of your event, explore your floral aspirations, and discuss your narrative in depth. This is our chance to uncover the true essence of you and your occasion.

Step Two

After our discussion, we delve into researching, crafting, and designing your ideal floral arrangements. Through our teamwork, we meticulously analyze every aspect, leading to a remarkable and unique floral creation. A customized proposal will be crafted, covering a tailored color scheme, mood board, layout design, and seasonal flower recommendations. This detailed proposal, accompanied by a thorough quote and contract, marks the official beginning of our collaboration.

Step Three

After finalizing the vision, the next step is to bring your design to life. Six weeks prior to your event, we will meet again to confirm the design specifics and finalize your flower order. On your special day, we will be there in person to transform your floral visions into a stunning reality!
