What does the design package include?

Depending on the design package you have chosen, you will receive digital artwork files per item. Your package will be created and sent via email for approval within 3 business days of our phone consultation.

How many revisions does the design package include?

Each package includes 3 revision rounds to make any desired changes.

Are samples included in the design package?

Yes, printed samples are included in each design package. Samples will be created using our recommended stock type. You will receive 1 x sample per item as listed in your chosen design package.

Can you arrange printing?

Yes, we can arrange printing. Please refer to our digital printing pricelist for details. Alternatively, we can arrange a custom print quote for letterpress, hot foil stamp and white ink printing.

How long does it take to complete my design package?

Our lead time varies per client. Here is a general guide:

Artwork only: 3 to 7 business days to allow for any artwork revisions

Design and print: 7 - 14 business days depending on the print process chosen

What are your payment terms?

We have flexible payment terms to suit our client needs.

As a general standard we work with a 50% deposit and 50% balance process.

If you need to discuss an alternate payment arrangement, we will do our best to accommodate your needs.
