

Andy Lacy Music – Wedding Music Packages

Welcome and thanks for considering Andy Lacy Music & Handpicked Acoustic Duo for your wedding!

Please see below a description of Performer Options (Solo/Duo), a little about our Performance Packages and our current Pricing Guide.

Performer Options

1. Solo Acoustic – perfect for Ceremony and Drinks/Canapes. Perfectly suits a more intimate reception, great for a cruisey vibe.
2. Handpicked Acoustic Duo – suitable for Ceremony, Drinks/Canapes & a great fit for Receptions where the mood is a bit more up and you want to get the party and dancefloor started. Bigger sound, two guitars and lots of vocal harmonies.

Performance Packages

Ceremony

Songs as chosen by you both. Specific songs happily learnt for the day upon request. Can include:

- Pre-ceremony music (as required)
- Aisle Walk/Entrance song
- Songs during registry signings (generally 2 songs)
- Recession song/s

Drinks/Canapes

A laid-back set of tunes or two whilst people have a drink before dinner (often during time when photos are being taken). Great for setting the party atmosphere and keeping guests entertained.

Reception

Usually 3-4 x 45mins sets of live music - Generally more laid-back tunes through entrée and main, then some more up-tempo songs as the evening progresses. Will often include a first dance/bridal waltz which can be a song of your choosing that we perform. We can be very flexible with how our sets work around your run-sheet and timings.

All packages include:

- use of a full professional P.A. system (and lighting where required)
- early arrival to set up and sound-check
- playlist music between sets where required

From experience, our suggestion for an uptempo, party feel at a Reception would usually be to book the DUO option – bigger sound, more energy, much better for a dancefloor and party feel. The solo option is perfect for ceremonies and drinks/canapes, and can work well for intimate and laid-back receptions, but in most cases the duo is the better fit.

Pricing Guide

The following is an outline of pricing, which can be adapted to your exact needs:
