

Basic Rates

Choirs are charged at $125/singer. For a 3 hour call costs would be

6 Singers	$750
8 Singers	$1,000
12 Singers	$1,500
Full Choir 18-25 Singers	$2,250 - $3,125

FDS Accompanist: $125

FDS Conductor: $125-$150 (depending on choir)

Preference for FDS gigs is 6 singers minimum – this allows for more strength on the melody line, while still maintaining full harmony. This is especially important in an open space.

Additional Charges

Music Requests

Requests for specific music that is not already in our repertoire will incur an additional fee for the cost of the new sheet music or the arrangement of the pieces (if not already arranged for choir).

Travel

If a significant travel distance is required, petrol costs will be added.

Costume

If full or partial costumes other than the choirs' regular performance uniform are required, the cost of buying or hiring the items will be added to our fee.

Melbourne Women's Choir

In its 26 years the Melbourne Women's Choir has a memorable history, starting with a Melbourne-hosted Women Composer Conference, singing with Melbourne Symphony Orchestra, Sydney Symphony Orchestra, Stonnington Symphony Orchestra, appearing on the TV Football Show, being one of the choirs in the Classical Spectacular on Rod Laver Arena in 2000, sharing concerts with women – Japanese Kanazawa choir, Cecilian Singers of New Zealand, and men – Gwent Male Choir of Wales, Adelaide Male Choir and Melbourne Mastersingers. It has taken part in a gospel musical in St Patrick's Cathedral, has hosted several Voices of Women festivals and attended a similar one in Adelaide in 2006. The choir has donned nuns costumes for a Sister Act gig, has provided backing music for a film and a video game, and has co-hosted sixteen Choral@Montsalvat festivals.

Melbourne Chamber Choir

The Melbourne Chamber Choir has been a distinguished contributor to the Melbourne Choral scene for 37 years. This four part (SATB) choir prides itself on performing chamber works from Mediaeval to contemporary times, as well as showcasing new Australian works. The choir has performed with the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra and the Sydney Symphony Orchestra, Orchestra Victoria, the Melbourne Chamber Orchestra, the percussion ensemble Synergy, and the Stonnington Symphony Orchestra. It has shared concerts with the choir of the Blessed Sacrament Basilica, New Zealand, the North Arizona University Choir and the Corinthian Singers of Adelaide. It has sung in the Adelaide and Castlemaine Festivals, and it provided the southern continent choral music for the Opening Ceremony of the 2008 Beijing Olympics.

Faye Dumont

The Faye Dumont Singers organisation was created by Faye Dumont after returning to Melbourne from post-graduate studies at the University of Southern California in 1983. Faye has been a driving force in the Melbourne choral scene as the founding president of the Australian Choral Association (now the Australian National Choral Association), convenor of the Australian Choral Conductors Education and Training schools and artistic director of the Melbourne International Choral Festival.
