I'M ALEX

I was born and raised in Mexico City and spent most of my professional life playing basketball around the world. the transition into photography was so natural for me as no matter where I was, I had to have a camera in my hands, and lucky me, now I get to do this for a living.

MY JOURNEY

My career in photography began in Abu Dhabi, working alongside people from all backgrounds and cultures. during this time, I thrived on capturing the natural chemistry between couples, the love within families, as well as showcasing the empowering of individuals..

My Goal

I've now brought my skills down under with my Aussie wife and my Mexican chihuahua to establish The Happy Donkey Photography within Australia.

I hope that this introduction allowed you to get to know me a little bit, however if you would like to know me more, I'm only a click away :)

Not only is Alex extremely gifted in his talent, he offers a very unique approach. We have four children and all of which struggle to have their photo taken all at one time. Alex created such a warm and gentle atmosphere in all communication that we were able to have incredible images. The children felt safe and comfortable to just be themselves. We will forever be committing to have Alex take our photographs for all of the many wonderful milestones to come because he was able to catch us in our most authentic representation. A rarity for sure.

“I can't think of a better photographer to have had at our wedding. Alex knew all the right times to capture intimate details from the sidelines, step in and give groups direction to capture the best photos, and to jump on into the circle on the dance floor.”
