

ABOUT.

Hi, I'm Taryn, otherwise known as The Organised Bride.

I live in Brisbane with my husband and puppy dog, and planning your wedding is just as much a dream come true for me, as the day will be for you.

I've been planning events for as long as I can remember; professionally as the Brand and Events Manager of a national Australian retailer, personally for any event I could come up with (birthdays, Royal weddings, just because...!) and I was pinning wedding content on Pinterest for many, many years before I even met my husband. With all this in mind, the switch to a career in wedding planning was the most natural thing I could have done.

I know what it's like to be planning a wedding while working full-time and juggling everything else life throws at you and so my mission is to take the time pressure and stress out of your wedding planning experience, so you can live your life and still have the wedding you've dreamed of.

Every wedding I plan is totally unique, and so are my packages, so please have a look over the options on the following pages and let me know if you'd prefer I put together a custom package, just for you.

Taryn.

FULL WEDDING PLANNING

Total Investment $4,700

As our name suggests, we absolutely love getting stuck into every single tiny detail of your wedding! Together we will start by defining your vision for the day and understanding your non-negotiables. I'll then source venues and vendors that suit your budget, vision and date, saving you countless hours doing all this hard work for yourself. You'll receive refined options to choose from, and when you're ready, I'll do all the booking and communication for you, ensuring you only have to work with one person, rather than all your suppliers individually. This package takes the huge time investment out of planning your wedding, while ensuring you are working with verified suppliers that have been tried and tested. I will also take care of all the logistics and little details that can feel overwhelming, so you can enjoy your day without a worry in the world!

Inclusions:

- Unlimited planning meetings and communication to bring clarity to your vision for the day and the types and styles of vendors you will require
- Source, negotiate and book all key vendors, working within your budget and requirements, including venue, photographer, videographer, makeup and hair artists, DJ, car hire, cake (and anyone else you need!)
- Access to my wedding planning platform, Aisle Planner, which includes to do lists, budget trackers, mood boards and more all in the one place
- All logistics and details of the day, both big and small! From invitations and signage to seating arrangements, lighting, transport and so much more

COORDINATION & STYLING

Total Investment $1,200 (+travel if outside Brisbane)

With oh-so-many little details that go into a wedding day, having someone on hand to handle them all can make such a difference! From saving friends and family the task of setting up décor, napkins, chairs and more, to having someone who is across every detail of the day to handle any unforeseen circumstances, the value of having a day of coordinator can't be understated.

Inclusions:

- Planning meeting one month before your wedding to discuss all the vendors you've booked, your dreams and ideas for the day, styling elements and how you'd like the day to run
- Detailed run sheet of the day that will be useful both to you, your bridal party, family and vendors. This will include every aspect of the day timed out in detail
- Set up of all tables, flowers, centerpieces, place cards, signage, chairs, napkins, cutlery and any other items you may have to decorate the space.
- Move decorations from ceremony to reception space if required
- Greet all vendors as they arrive, ensure they know where to go and what to do and can do their work to the best of their ability
- Time tracking of day to ensure the schedule is adhered to
- Greet guests and direct them to where they need to go for the ceremony, and then help them move into the reception space
- Cue walk down the aisle for bridal party and bride, play of music during ceremony, entry into reception and other logistical elements of the day
- Assistance to the MC for the night to remind them when to do speeches, introduce cake cutting etc.
- Pack down possible upon discussion
