

Upon a Star
SPECIAL EVENTS

Congratulations on your Engagement!

You have waited so long for this time to arrive, however the thought of all the tasks ahead in planning your own wedding seems daunting and overwhelming...

Upon a Star Special Events is here to assist you - we can guide you throughout the entire planning process or provide just a friendly helping hand on the day. Determining what areas of the planning stage our assistance will benefit you the most and help organise your wedding with confidence we offer the following services:

Planning Services: includes assistance establishing a style and vision for your Wedding Day, assistance with supplier engagement and management, provide invaluable resources to keep your budget in check, suppliers in the loop and ensure those special moments are timed to perfection... and more!

Coordination Services: includes a meet and greet on site at your venue to ensure everything is in place for the Wedding Day (we will help with filling the gaps!), assist with the table setup and making sure your venue is looking as pretty as a picture as well as being your helping hand on the day liaising with your suppliers so you can relax...and more!

We want you to feel at ease in the whole process, relaxed in the week leading up to your big day and kicking up your heels when the party starts! We would love to help you plan and assist the most amazing wedding celebration you and your guests will be talking about for years to come!
