About Us

Hi there! My name is Auntora and I'm the owner and founder of Ekta Creative Dance Studio™. Thank you for considering us for the choreography of your special day! We can't wait to bring your vision to life.

Dance has been a significant and constant part of my life for as long as I can remember. My initial practice was and still is in Traditional South Asian Folk, Semi-Classical and Bollywood Dance. This has allowed me to develop a unique choreography style for creating elegant and vibrant First and Group Dances.

One of my greatest passions in life is teaching. This led me to studying and working as a Primary and Special Education Teacher for 4 years before I decided to combine my two greatest passions into one, founding Ekta Creative Dance Studio™. At the core of all my practice as a dance teacher, is an individualised teaching approach designed to help you learn with ease and shine on your special day.

No matter your level of experience, my goal is always to make sure you feel comfortable, confident and most importantly have fun in the process.

Introduction

At Ekta Creative, we believe in transparency and creating an open understanding of how we calculate the pricing of our services.

We also strongly believe in fostering a culture where artists and teachers of art are acknowledged and adequately compensated for their experience, skill and services.

Our goal is to ensure a sustainable business where we can continue doing what we love – help you shine on your special day.

We want to remind clients that we are experienced teachers and are highly trained in formulating and executing teaching strategies to help you learn your dance, regardless of your skill level.

BRIDESMAID DANCE

Auntora was amazing throughout our lessons! She took the time to teach me and my bridal party the choreography, fixed my music for me and even sent out PDFs of the positioning. She is an excellent teacher and I would definitely recommend her to others! Super easy to follow and was so helpful with helping us practice with our outfits too.

FIRST DANCE

Auntora helped my husband and I with our wedding first dance choreography. She has such a calm and friendly nature that made the whole process enjoyable and fun! Best thing about her choreography style (beyond being elegant and unique) is that she is willing to adjust to your comfort level. If you're considering Auntora as your choreographer for your wedding dances I would not hesitate and book her in!

FIRST DANCE

Auntora is such a delight to work with! We came to her with lots of enthusiasm but little dancing ability. In just 2 months, we learned an entire 6-minute routine, and people have told us that our final performance was amazing! Her video tutorials are incredibly clear and easy to follow, making it possible to rehearse from anywhere at anytime. In addition to the step-by-step breakdown tutorials, she was always available to answer any questions and help us out along the way. We can't thank Auntora enough for making our dream performance come true!

BRIDESMAIDS DANCE

My sister and I do a lot of dance performances but we find the task of choreographing too challenging and outside of our skill set! Auntora however is beyond talented at whipping up the most beautiful mesmerising dance choreographies, and in very little time! I can't count the number of times people have asked us who has choreographed our dances! Beyond creating incredibly fun dance sequences, she is a really wonderful teacher - always showcasing warmth, kindness and patience, with an adept ability to break down moves in a way that can be easily picked up. I really can't recommend her services enough!
