One of Queensland's peak destinations...

Binna Burra Lodge

Nestled high in the Gold Coast Hinterland within World Heritage listed Lamington National Park, Binna Burra Lodge provides the perfect backdrop for special functions and events of all kinds. Guests will be swept away by the natural beauty of the 20,600 hectares of vibrant Gondwana rainforest and the breathtaking views of the Coast, and the Coomera and Numinbah Valleys.

Binna Burra Lodge is one of the most in-demand Hinterland wedding and event destinations in Queensland and is now back open for the first time since the bushfires of 2019. The site boasts a broad range of breathtaking function venues and spaces, all adding to the experience of hosting an event in this 'top of the world' destination.

Your event in one of Queensland's peak destinations will be organised by our dedicated functions and events team, assisting you with fully tailored experience packages including on-site catering, drink packages, entertainment and more.

Our team are committed to providing you with personal and professional service to ensure that every aspect of your event is handled with the detail and respect it deserves. The best way to experience the magic of this place is to organise a visit - Please contact us and organise a time to see first hand what a special place Binna Burra is.
