FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

can i bring in a cake?

absolutely. we can slice and serve your cake for you for $3pp, or you're welcome to bring the cake just for display and cutting, and save it all for yourself later!

can we have a dj, live music, or entertainment?

definitely! we have a special spot in the venue that's perfect for djs that's slightly separated from the main dining space, meaning you won't need to worry about having any less space to dance. we just ask that after 10pm on weekdays and 11pm on saturdays and sundays, we switch to a spotify playlist through our in-house speakers to consider our nearby neighbours. our polished concrete floors are beautiful (and perfect for dancing), although the space is not ideal for the acoustics of a full drumkit!

can you make a vegan menu?

we can cater for any and all dietary requirements, but we're especially good with vegans! so much so, that we host regular vegan degustation events to give our chefs a chance to show off their plant-based skills can you cater for halal or kosher requirements?

most of our meat suppliers are halal-certified, though, due to our industrial kitchen and preparation of other ingredients, our kitchen is not strictly halal-certified. if you have some guests attending who this may not be suitable for, we can allow byo external catering exclusively for religious reasons will there be space to dance?

where there's a will, there's a way! even with maximum capacity seated receptions, we can always find a way to free up some space for dancing do kids have to join the banquet?

that's up to you! if you don't think they'll make the most of the banquet, we have kids meals available with a selection of picky-eater-friendly options to choose from what about my guests that don't drink?

we've got you covered. our non-alcoholic beverage package includes high-quality mocktails and non-alcoholic spirits, non-alcoholic wines and beers, as well as your standard soft drinks and juices, which are also available on a bar tab!

what are your typical booking times?

lunch bookings are from 12pm to 4pm, with last drinks being called at 3.30pm, dinner bookings on sunday to thursday are from 6pm to 10pm with last drinks called at 9.30pm, and friday to saturday dinner bookings are from 6pm - 11pm with last drinks called at 10.30pm

how do i get there?

the closest train station is victoria park which is under 10min walk. tram 86, stop at johnston st or smith st stop is just up the road and a 5 minutes walk. bus lines 200 and 207 can also drop you off nearby where can i park?

parking is all off-street and taxis are best to make the most of the event safely!

do i need to bring identification?

yes, any guests who look under the age of 25 will be id checked can i decorate the room? are decorations included?

you are more than welcome to personalise the space with your own florals, balloons and other decorations. confetti, rose petals and glitter are not permitted, and will incur a $250 clean up fee can i visit the site prior to booking?

yes! reach out to our lovely events team who would love to meet you and answer any questions you may have
