Accommodation

Stonebarn is a sole-use venue - the entire lodge is rented to only one party at a time to ensure privacy and exclusivity.

Handcrafted with local stone and timber, Stonebarn can sleep up to 18 people in 8 bedrooms. It comprises 6 luxurious suites upstairs and 2 double ensuite bedrooms downstairs (2 additional trundle beds can also be added to any of the upstairs rooms). Each upstairs suite is 50 square metres with en-suite bathrooms, clawfoot baths, glass showers and sunken french double basins with separate toilets. Rooms feature four-poster, king-size beds and small balconies overlooking the dam, truffiere, river and forest.

The Verandah

Overlooking the dam and forest, shaded by a grape vine canopy with views to the truffiere, the Stonebarn verandah is perfect for long table dinners, ceremonies and cocktail celebrations.

Width between furthestmost verandah posts: 4.69 metres
Post width: 1.3 metres
Distance from ground to rafters: 3.72
Length of verandah: 35 metres

The Clearing

Hidden amongst giant karri trees with breathtaking views of the forest, river and truffiere, there is an Upper and Lower Clearing, both special places to exchange vows. Both clearings can be accessed on foot, a short walk from the lodge. If you use the Upper Clearing as your ceremony location you can use the Lower Clearing as parking for the bride and guests experiencing difficulty walking.

The River

The serene Warren River runs through the estate and is a secluded location in natural beauty to exchange vows overlooking the gentle water, native trees and mossy banks. It is also a spectacular location for photos of the newly-weds and bridal party.
