Wedding Ceremonies

AT THE OLD COURTHOUSE | 45 HENDERSON STREET FREMANTLE

Be Part of History

Our marriage ceremonies are conducted in the original Fremantle Courthouse, built by convicts and first used to conduct weddings in 1899.

"The perfect setting for an informal wedding. The staff on the day were attentive and friendly." - Sarah

"We were so happy with how the entire event went. The venue is just beautiful and was very relaxed, nothing was too much bother." - Marlene

"Beautifully renovated venue, perfect for a courthouse small wedding. The team looked after our every need. Plenty of different areas for fun pictures and outdoor areas for drinks." - Joel
